

Mazzio's New Mouthwatering Menu Items...

7/15/2010 /Tulsa Food Blog

Did you know that Mazzio's is a Tulsa start-up? Founded in 1961 by Ken Selby, a school teacher that worked long hours after a full days work at Tulsa Public Schools, "The Pizza Parlor" was a hit in Tulsa. Four years later, Ken decided to make pizza his full time job and the one-man pizza place changed its name to Ken's Pizza in 1965.

Needless to say, in 1979, after expanding in Tulsa, the name changed again to Mazzio's. In ten years, the Mazzio's chain grew to over 150 locations in a dozen states, setting new industry benchmarks for sales along the way. The pizza that our families here in Tulsa have known and loved continues to grow with 18 locations in the Tulsa area and a total of 170 restaurants in ten states.

We were lucky enough to be invited to try 4 of Mazzio's new menu items a few weeks ago. Talk about food coma, we were sure in one after we left, and it was worth every minute! The new menu items are on the lunch buffet and can be tried Monday-Friday for around $6 per person along with the full buffet and salad bar – all you can eat! Take a look....

Mouthwatering Cinnaboli

Warm Fudge Brownies

Cheesy Potatoes, Fresh Fruit Medley, Warm Fudge Brownies and the Mouthwatering Cinnaboli

The fresh fruit medley combines cantaloupe, honey dew, grapes and pineapple into one light and healthy option. The cheesy potatoes bring together hearty potatoes and bacon with savory cheeses until bubbly and warm. Top off your lunch with brownies or a Cinnaboli – cinnamon and sugar wrapped up inside a mouth-watering, buttery crust.

"Our pizza and salad bar are always fresh and delicious," said Greg Lippert, current Mazzio's CEO. "We want to continue to surprise our customers and keep them coming back for something different."
