Additions, subtractions and new eateries on menu

Mazzio's Italian Eatery adds four hoagies

Four hoagies have been added to the menu at all Mazzio's Italian Eatery locations.

The Italian sub is made with salami, capicola ham, deli ham, provolone cheese, red onions, diced pepperoncinis, sliced tomato, lettuce and zesty Italian dressing.

The ham-and-cheddar includes deli ham, melted cheddar cheese, lettuce, tomato and creamy Italian dressing.

The turkey-and-Swiss features sliced turkey breast, Swiss cheese, red onions, lettuce, tomato, warm deli mustard and mayo.

Chicken-bacon-and-Swiss included grilled chicken, crispy smoked bacon, Swiss cheese, red onions, lettuce, tomato and mayo.

The subs come in a toasted multigrain hoagie roll and are served with a choice of chips or seasoned fries. They cost $6.50 to $7.

Merritt's to celebrate National Doughnut Day

Area Merritt's Bakery locations will celebrate National Doughnut Day on Wednesday by giving away a free doughnut with any drink purchase.

Salvation Army officers also will be at the bakeries that day to take donations.

The Sushi Place opens in downtown Tulsa

The Sushi Place has opened at 115 W. Third St. in the heart of downtown Tulsa.

Except for a few appetizers, the menu is made up entirely of different types of sushi items, including nigiri, sashimi, temaki, common rolls and signature rolls.

Hours are 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday-Friday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday. The phone number is 918-574-8518.

Chicken Palace opens in west Tulsa

Chicken Palace, featuring traditional breakfasts and a chicken-based lunch menu, has opened at 728 W. 23rd St. just west of the 21st Street bridge.

In addition to rotisserie chicken, fried chicken and chicken
