Additions make for appetizing new options at area eateries

Mazzio's introduces new Ken's specialty pizzas

To celebrate its 50th anniversary, Tulsa-based Mazzio's Italian Eatery brought back founder Ken Selby's Ken's Original Pizzas for what was supposed to be a limited time in February and March. The Ken's pizza with the crispy crust and spicy sauce was so popular, Mazzio's added it to the regular menu.

Now, Mazzio's is introducing three extra-large Ken's specialty pizzas for $13.50 each. The new pizzas:

Ken's All Meat Pizza is topped with pepperoni, Canadian bacon, sausage and chicken.

Customers may customize their pizzas with Ken's Favorite by choosing any four toppings.

Ken's Supreme combines pepperoni, sausage, green peppers, mushrooms and onions.

Applebee's adds cinnamon apple turnover dessert

Applebee's has added a cinnamon apple turnover to its dessert lineup.

The turnover features crisp, cinnamon-spiced apple slices in a buttery caramel sauce, all folded into a sweet crust drizzled with honey cream cheese. It is served with a side of vanilla ice cream and sells for $5.99.

Big Daddy's announces scholarship winners

The Big Daddy Foundation, named for the late Johnnie "Big Daddy" Ball, who founded Big Daddy's All-American Bar-B-Q, has announced the four $1,000 scholarship winners of an essay contest for graduating high school seniors.

The essays centered on the contestants' goals and dreams for the future, inspirational experiences and how their goals will positively impact the community.

The winners were Victoria Dill, Union High School; Ukai Hunter, Booker T. Washington High School; Jasmine Marzett, McLain High School; and DeVaunte Benjamin, Memorial High School.

Teri Fermo moving Bohemia, catering to Norman

Teri Fermo, longtime Tulsa deli operator and caterer, and a familiar face at the Cherry Street Farmers Market, is moving her Bohemia/Moveable Feast Catering businesses to Norman at the end of August.

"I will be at the next two Cherry Street markets with the usual fare: pizzas, frozen dinners and soups, dips, appetizers, cakes, bar cookies, and toffee," Fermo said in a news release. "Also, Zezebel, my food truck, will be at the market featuring hot breakfast items."

Fermo said she will continue to serve Tulsa with catering and prepared food and toffee deliveries.

If you want to pick up items from Fermo before she leaves town, call 918-688-2915.

Cosmo adds three new items to menu

Margarita Whoopie Pie, tequila-lime ice cream sandwiched between two lime chocolate chip cookies with a salt rim, is one of three new dishes on the menu at Cosmo, 3334 S. Peoria Ave.

Other new dishes include Jeffery Bites, an English muffin with bacon, turkey and melted cheese "but mainly bacon," and a smoked tuna plate with smoked albacore tuna salad with corn and red onions in a lemon cilantro sauce.

The tuna dish is served with a toasted baguette and garlic dill cream cheese.

Scoops & Grinds reopens following fire

Scoops & Grinds, 1038 W. Main St. in Collinsville, has reopened following a fire that shut down the business for a couple of months.

The restaurant has added deli sandwiches, wraps and croissants to its lineup of ice cream, specialty coffee drinks and Italian sodas.

Hours are 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday.
