Mazzio's sales to benefit Folds of Honor Foundation

Tulsa-based Mazzio's Italian Eatery will donate a percentage of its sales to the Folds of Honor Foundation, which helps provide scholarships to spouses and children of soldiers killed or disabled in service to their country. The program will run through August.

Plans for Odyssey de Culinaire released

It's that time of year again to make plans for the Odyssey de Culinaire, elegant dinner events at which top Oklahoma City and Tulsa chefs switch cities to help raise money for the ProStart program of the Oklahoma Restaurant Association.

The first dinner will be July 26 at the Doubletree by Hilton at Warren Place. It will feature Oklahoma City chefs Christine Dowd, Aunt Pitty Pat's Catering; David Henry, Coach House; Ryan Parrott, LOCAL; Christopher Pope, Skirvin Hilton Hotel; and Mark Vannasdale, Restaurants at Chesapeake.

Through August, Mazzio's will donate a percentage of its sales to help the Folds of Honor Foundation. Tulsa World file

On Aug. 2, the dinner will be held at the Skirvin Hilton Hotel in Oklahoma City. Tulsa-area chefs will be Sam Bracken, Canebrake; Jakub Hartlieb, River Spirit Casino; Erik Reynolds, Smoke on Cherry Street; Marcus Vause, Brasserie; and Grant Vespasian, The Tavern.

The ProStart program is designed to give high school juniors and seniors work experience and practical curriculum in the restaurant and hospitality industry. Each chef for these dinners will be paired with a culinary student.

The dinners will include five courses and wine pairings. Both begin with a wine reception at 6 p.m. and dinner will follow at 7 p.m. Tickets are $125 per event or $200 for both evenings.

Participants may register online at tulsaworld.com/okrestaurants or by calling Anita Austin at 800-375-8181.
