Mazzio's co-brands with Wing Run Wings

Tulsa-based Mazzio's Italian Eatery has co-branded with Wing Run Wings to offer a choice of boneless or traditional wings in a wide variety of flavors.

The wings are made to order, and flavors include garlic Parmesan, sweet BBQ, honey mustard, sesame sweet chili and lemon pepper.

The wings formerly were available only at locally owned Wing Run Cafe.

Mazzio's also is bringing back its 3-pound pizza for a limited time. Guests may order a MegaFeast with a 3-pound pizza, five boneless wings and a 9-inch pan of brownies for $22.99.

Winemaker Peter Spann to host Bodean dinner

Peter Spann, winemaker and owner of Spann Vineyards in Sonoma Valley, California, will host a dinner at 6 p.m. Monday at Bodean Seafood, 3376 E. 51st St.

Wines will include Spann's Betsy's Backacher Red, Betsy's Backacher White, Classic Four (cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc, merlot, petit verdot) and cabernet franc.

Dishes will include California Kumamoto oyster, kale salad, slow-roasted Wagyu bavette steak and mulled wine poached pear.

Cost is $65 per person, plus tax and gratuity. Reservations: 918-743-3861.

Biga schedules French wine dinner Monday

Wine rep John Williams will host a dinner featuring French wines from Tortoise Creek at 6:30 p.m. Monday at Biga, 4329 S. Peoria Ave.

"I did the food out of the 'Buvette' cookbook I got for Christmas," Biga owner Tuck Curren said. "This is a superb restaurant we ate at in New York."

The dinner will include croque monsieur, baked rigatoni, hachis parmentier (French shepherd's pie) and profiteroles.

They will be paired with Tortoise Creek Viognier Le Verger Minervois, Le Charmel Costieres de Nimes and Carignan Vieilles Vignes Herault.

Cost is $45 per person, plus tax and gratuity. Reservations: 918-743-2442.
